Bring & Sing CARMINA BURANA

Saturday 28th April 2018
Yateley Manor School, Yateley

Registration and workshop: 10.30 – 4.00; Performance 5.00

Please join us for a day of fun and inspirational music making, as we explore this unusual and exciting work.

Our Musical Director for the day will be Quintin Beer, an energising and passionate conductor who has the exceptional ability to get the most out of both the singers and the music, whilst making it really good fun!

If you are interested in joining a choir, but aren't sure what it would involve, why not come along and see how much fun it can be?

Alternatively, if you love to sing but cannot commit to regular rehearsals at present or are simply a fan of Carmina Burana and would like to get to know it a bit better, please join us for what promises to be a most enjoyable day – shared with fellow music enthusiasts.

There will be two workshop sessions to get yourself familiarised with the work and polish the choral ensemble, followed by an early evening performance to which family and friends are warmly invited.

Tea and coffee will be served during registration and we will provide tea, coffee and cake between the afternoon workshop and the performance. There will also be a generous break for lunch and to rest your voice. Please bring a picnic - alternatively there are several local pubs that serve excellent food.

For those of you who do not own a copy of the Carmina Burana score, there will be music available for hire.

Spaces at the workshop and copies of the score will be limited, so please book in advance to avoid disappointment.

If you have any questions, please email us on: info@yateley-choral.org.uk.
