

The Dead Sea Scrolls

A Talk by Steve Taverner

at Fleet Methodist Church
on Wednesday 27th February (7.15 for 7.30pm)

The Dead Sea Scrolls have intrigued both Christians and non-Christians alike since their chance discovery by a boy throwing a stone into a cave in 1947. A short time ago Steve gave a fascinating talk on this subject at Fleet Baptist Church and we are fortunate that he has agreed to come to Fleet Methodist Church.

Amongst the issues that will be covered are:

- What are the Dead Sea Scrolls?
- Where were they found?
- Who wrote the Scrolls?
- What were the key beliefs and practices described in the Scrolls?
- What do they tell us about Scripture in Jesus' Day?
- Why are the Scrolls valuable for Christians?

Steve's talk will last about an hour and he will then take questions but if anyone has a specific area of interest, and we can let Steve know in advance, he will try to cover this in his talk.

Since Steve has kindly offered to bring some handouts. It would be helpful, therefore, to know in advance the approximate number that will be required, so please contact the church office if you are planning to attend: office@fleetmethodist.org.uk (not essential). Thank you.

Tea or coffee will be provided on arrival.
