THIS SUNDAY 12TH July 2.30pm: Social get-together in the car park

Perhaps it's not your immediate thought of a scenic place to sit and chat but we can guarantee having it to ourselves and the weather forecast is good. So, if you're free, bring along a chair (there will be some available if you can't) and a flask and we'll enjoy the chance of a socially distanced get-together.

Weekly Prayer (contributed by Heather)

Dear Lord, we come before you with humility in trying to understand the complexity of a very different world. We know that you taught us to share anything and everything that you have given us Most especially our life and our daily living with others, We know that you gave us your greatest gift, in the sharing of your death, so that we could all be saved. So by renouncing sin you shared your life and gave us all an everlasting life, if we believe in you.

Lord, help us to share our daily lives with those who need us,
By giving ourselves in helping your cause and everyone
Without exception for any reason,
Help us to share equally with all.

Grant us a true freedom of movement
An understanding of your release to us from sin
By your sacrificial act of mercy
So that we may be truly fulfilled through you.

It is in sharing that we become caring
And in caring that we seek to understand others
So that you can give us true happiness
That work is being done in your holy name. In Jesus name we pray

Amen
