Studies on Paul by Mary Elms Mary Elms, local preacher, is presenting a course of five studies on Paul, every Monday at 7:30pm throughout July, on Zoom. The first of these studies was held on Monday 3rd July, it was well attended and very interesting. The talk was entitled 'The Lenses through which we read Paul'. If you would like an audio recording of the talk – please let Keg know and she will forward this to you. Each study will be recorded, so if you can't make the evening, you can listen to the recording afterwards.

Action for Children Envelopes 2023 Reminder This is just a gentle reminder to bring your Action for Children Envelopes into to Church so that I can send the money to the Charity. You can either give them to the Steward on Duty if I am not around or put the envelope in with the Collection so the Stewards will put them aside for me.

Thank you all for your generosity.

McMillan coffee morning at the Baptist Church Hall on Monday 15th August from 10-12

Sandhurst Churches Together invite us all to join in with this prayer initiative whereby, once a month, we pause for 5 minutes at 5pm to pray for our community. Suggestions for prayer are included in the notice.

5@5 on Thursday 10th August 2023

As we pause to pray at 5pm, let's think of those who provide, support and deliver transport services for our community.

Our prayers might cover those in key roles such as

- professional drivers, guards...
- volunteer drivers
- those engaged in the maintenance of vehicles
- those who work for the maintenance of roads, rails...

And at this holiday time, we might offer a prayer for travellers.

May the Lord go with you on your journey,
whether near or far.
May He keep you safe in His loving care.
May He guide you in all the places you go,
by land, sea or air.
May He bless you until you return safely
to your home again.
Amen.
