Studies on Paul by Mary Elms

Mary Elms, local preacher, is presenting a course of five studies on Paul, every Monday at 7:30pm throughout July, on Zoom.

The first of these studies was held on Monday 3rd July, it was well attended and very interesting. The talk was entitled 'The Lenses through which we read Paul'. If you would like an audio recording of the talk - please let Keg know and she will forward this to you. Each study will be recorded, so if you can't make the evening, you can listen to the recording afterwards.
