Sandhurst and Yateley Methodist Church April 2024

The minister writes...

Dear friends, I realise this will be appearing in the April newsletter which means that officially we will just celebrated have Easter as it is earlier this year, coming as it does at the very end of March. However, the Easter season is more than iust Easter Day, and we continue to celebrate the good news of Christ's resurrection lona after the Easter eggs have been consumed and the last Easter hymn sung.

As I'm sure you are aware, the liturgical year follows certain seasons. We always start with the first Sunday in Advent, then comes Christmas Day and the season of Christmas which is quickly succeeded by the Feast of Epiphany on 6th January. Depending on church tradition, the season of Epiphany can either been seen as continuing until the day before Ash Wednesday or being replaced by Ordinary Time but either way Lent is the next season. Lent takes us through to Easter and the Easter season continues to Pentecost, then Trinity Sunday and then Ordinary Time reasserts itself and takes us all the way to Advent once again. There are colours associated with each of these periods too. I won't go into the meaning of them here except to say that I think it is particularly significant that Holy Week should, for the most part, be marked by red as a reminder of the shed blood of Christ, and Easter by white and gold. White represents purity, holiness and grace, and gold denotes the triumph of resurrection over sin and death.

I do find the division of the liturgical year and the symbolism of the related colours interesting, but they are not something that we focus on deeply in the Methodist tradition. And I think it is right that this is so because, in one sense, as Christians, we are always living in the Easter season. Even when we celebrate Jesus' birth, we do so knowing that he doesn't stay a baby in the manger. We know about his ministry, his teaching, the miracles he performed, the acceptance he showed to the outcast and the stranger, the friends he chose (including Judas), the love he demonstrated throughout his life and most especially his loving embrace for all humanity stretched out on the cross.

We even know that the cross itself is NOT the end. In fact, we celebrate an empty cross because Jesus is no longer dead but risen. And it is right that we should do so.

Yet there is a danger. We can come too quickly to Easter Sunday morning. We can career from Palm Sunday to Easter Day with barely a pause to remember all of what happened during Holy Week. We can make of Easter something too light, too easily come by, too temporary. We forget the cost of crucifixion and sin and grief, and in doing so we lose something of the joy and the wonder at the rolled-away stone and the empty tomb.

I hope that this Easter you will have rediscovered that amazement, that awe. And I pray that as you journey in faith with the risen Jesus, the message of Easter will shape all of your living: your thoughts, your words and your actions far beyond Easter Day itself. For you – we – are Easter people, Alleluia!

With every blessing at Easter and always, Sharon

And we are Easter people, risen with Christ; Easter people, alive in him: Easter people, dancing, singing, praises bringing to our risen Saviour, Lord and King. Brian Hoare (b. 1935) © Brian Hoare/Jubilate Hymns Ltd

Your Church needs you! - Calling all previous stewards and assistants!

We currently have a lot of gaps in the weekly Stewarding and Assistant Stewarding Duty rotas. If you are able to do any duties then please email me and I will give you the dates which need to be filled.

Please let me know what you can do - even if you can only open up on the day and be the Steward/Assistant, I am always happy to liaise with the preacher. The Team will even pay the offering into the Post Office, if necessary!

So please do consider doing a duty or two, it would really take the pressure off the current Stewarding Team.

Many thanks in advance for your help - Keg

Flower rota

For various reasons, there are a number of Sundays available on the flower rota.

If you would like to take one of these, please let me know.

You can buy a bunch of flowers to put in a vase, or flowers for an arrangement (Oasis or an alternative is always available), or make a donation (via the stewards) and one of the silk flower arrangements will be used that Sunday.

Gil F has some tips:

It is tradition in our church not to use just red and white flowers—if you particularly want to use red and white, then please also include flowers of another colour.

Because the wall behind the communion table is black, some flower colours (dark red, blue or purple—receding) don't show up very well unless very carefully surrounded by light foliage. It is probably better to use white, yellow, orange, pink—bright (advancing) colours.

It is lovely to be able to give flowers to members of the congregation—a ministry of flowers.

Dates available:

March—31st (Easter Sunday), April—7th, 28th, August—11th

Thanks. Sue T

Please note:

Please use the front entrance to the church when arranging the flowers if there are any hirers in the hall. The oasis and pot will be either in church or in the vestry once flowers have been distributed on a Sunday. Thanks

Coffee mornings

Coffee Mornings every fourth Thursday in the month.

We have started a monthly Coffee Morning at church for members and visitors. The first one was held in January and we had a dozen people attend. It was a lovely opportunity to catch up over coffee and cakes. These coffee mornings are now up and running again.

Do put the date in your diary and pop along if you are free between 10:30 and 12 midday.

Coffee morning in April 2024 will be on Thursday 25th

Recycling for Good Causes

In the vestibule you will notice a largish box which advertises 'Recycling for good causes.'

Please donate your unwanted items from the following list. There are some leaflets available which tell you about what can be recycled but basically it is: Unwanted jewellery - including damaged items and costume jewellery and watches

Coins and currency - any age and UK and foreign both acceptable

Mobile phones, cameras, video cameras and gadgets including ipods, tablets but NOT laptops.

Stamps - single, loose and presentation packs.

The box contains a sack. When the sack is full Recycling for Good Causes will collect it and the church will receive 75% of the proceeds from the sale of the contents within about 8 weeks of collection. (As a guide, at High Cross they received a cheque for £80 - so it is definitely worth doing this!)

Thanks, Sharon

Reminder of more recycling

And of course you can still recycle medication blister packs, Pringle tubes, bras (any condition), pens (working or not) and Ferrero Rocher boxes (probably empty!) in the other box in the foyer!

Thanks Sue T

In memoriam plaques

I am delighted to be able to tell you that Camberley and District Funeral Directors (Yorktown Road, College Town) are now sponsoring our memorial plaques.

Just talk to Sue T about the words you'd like and they will provide the plaque for free! Doug W has been attaching them to the seats once done. Thanks Doug!

A donation to the church of £50 is suggested but not required.

Messy Mother's Day/Easter

On Saturday 9th March we held Messy Mothers Day/Easter. We enjoyed hosting this event and 36 children attended - with their grown-ups! It was very noisy! Heather had the messiest job getting the children to paint the palms of their hands to put on the huge Mother's Day heart she had prepared and this was displayed in church the following morning on Mother's Day (or more correctly 'Mothering Sunday!').

There were also paintings of roses from celery hearts believe it or not! Sandra did her usual preparation of food which is always a winner with the children - they flocked around her table and she nearly ran out of biscuits to decorate. There were other craft activities as well and the children really enjoyed themselves. Cynthia and Wendy did their usual hosting of refreshments which were gratefully received.

We then went into church where the children did an Easter Egg hunt and Keg then told a story which caused hilarity when the children thought Keg was going to crack open an egg onto Adam's (Sharon's son) head. They even voted to do it - none of the children wanted to prevent what could have been a traumatic event for Adam, and they laughed as an empty egg shell came crashing down onto his scalp expecting a messy scramble. They were almost disappointed! Anyway let's hope they remember the point of the story!

We sang a couple of action songs, one about Jesus riding into Jerusalem on a Donkey and the other one written by our clever Minister about mummies, daddies, Nannas and Grandads, to the tune Frere Jacque; she is so talented.

When time was up, away the children went, armed with the crafts they had loving prepared for their mummies, with a Fairtrade 'Real' chocolate egg and Easter story book.

The Team cleared up and went home exhausted! What a great afternoon of fun engaging with the little ones and their families - we are going to do it all again in the summer - so watch this space!

Maundy Supper

7pm Thursday 28th March.

We are hosting the Maundy Supper, Service and Communion this year and Crowthorne Methodist Church will be joining us.

We will need to know who would like to come as we need numbers for catering. We will be offering a cheese or ham supper. There will be a list on the hatch during refreshments so please make sure you put your name down or let Keg know via email.

Yateley Town Council Mayor's awards

Here are two photos which were taken at the Mayors awards ceremony on 18th March at Yateley Town Council. There were 13 volunteers from the community pantry who each received a certificate—including Wendy. As she reached 80 on Thursday this award will have a special meaning for her, but it is a big way to say thank you to all the volunteers.

Tricia Needes also received a certificate for her work with Yateley Industries

If you miss singing hymns that perhaps you loved years ago or are keen to familiarise yourself with different ones you would be very welcome.

Sometimes there is also a chance to select what will be sung at services either when Sharon is preaching or when we have a Local Arrangement.

The next Rejoice! will be on

2nd April 2024
