We welcome any visitors and new residents with us today. Please introduce yourself to a steward or sign the visitor's book in the porch.

We send our love and sympathy to Revd Catherine Bowstead and family on the death of her father. May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

Membership: There are a number of our congregation being received into membership on Easter morning. If this is something YOU'D be interested in, then please contact Sharon 01344 77496 or sharon.gardner@methodist.org.uk who would be pleased to talk with you about what is involved and why it's a good thing!

Easter Eggs for Fourways House Easter will be upon us soon! A few of us are going to Fourways Residential Home on Wednesday 20th March to have a short Easter Service. We were hoping to give each of the 20 residents a plain boxed Easter Egg but unfortunately to date none have been donated. If you feel able to buy an Easter Egg (or two!), then please bring them with you on Sunday. Even better, bring an Easter Egg along with you on Sunday and come and join us for the service on Wednesday 20th! Our short services are really well received by the residents and it's so lovely when they join in the hymns. Many thanks Keg

Maundy Supper On Thursday 28th March we will be holding the Maundy Supper at 7 pm. This year we are hosting the Supper and Crowthorne will be joining us. We will be providing a cheese or ham supper and a list will be on the hatch during refreshments so you can put your names down. We will be asking for a small donation, if you are able to, on the evening in the form of a retiring collection.
